STATEMENT OF POLICIES REGARDING SECURITIES

National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations (“NI 31-103”) requires registered firms to identify and respond to existing material conflicts of interest and material conflicts of interest that can reasonably be expected to arise between the registered firm and its client. Potentially, a conflict of interest arises under either of the following situations: (i) a registered firm trades in or advises with respect to its own securities or securities in certain other issuers to which it, or certain other parties related to it, are related or connected; and (ii) a registered firm has a director, officer or principal shareholder that is a director, officer or principal shareholder of another registrant.

Accordingly, an issuer is “connected” to Spartan if, due to indebtedness or other relationships, a prospective purchaser of securities of the connected issuer might question Spartan independence from the issuer.

“related issuer” means, in respect of Spartan, an issuer of securities over which Spartan exercises a controlling influence (for example, through the ownership of, or direction or control over voting securities) or an issuer of securities that exercises a controlling influence over Spartan. “responsible person” means, for a registered adviser, (a) the adviser, (b) a partner, director or officer of the adviser, and (c) each of the following who has access to, or participates in formulating, an investment decision made on behalf of a client of the adviser or advice to be given to a client of the adviser: (i) an employee or agent of the adviser; (ii) an affiliate of the adviser; and (iii) a partner, director, officer, employee or agent of an affiliate of the adviser.
